

Employment Opportunity

Location of Job:	Brownsville/ East New York, Brooklyn
Employer:	Brookdale University Hospital & Medical Center
Program Name:	Healthy Families Brookdale
Job Title:	Family Assessment Worker
Description of Duties:	The Family Assessment Worker (FAW) reviews hospital or clinic records to conduct screens. Screens and outreach are also conducted at local shelters, hair salons, Laundromats, health fairs, community based organizations etc. The FAW also conducts interviews with parents prenatally or immediately after the birth of their child. Interviews are primarily conducted in the home. In addition, the FAW interfaces with other agencies to improve linkage relationships.
Hours:	Primarily 9-5. Must be available for flexible evenings, some weekends, and occasional overnight travel
Salary:	Available upon request
Minimum Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High school diploma/GED • Ability to be non-judgmental, empathic and insightful • Knowledge of community resources, early childhood development and parenting skills. • Dynamic personality and ability to build trusting relationships
Preferred Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bilingual (Spanish) • Post-Secondary education in Early Childhood Development, Health, Social Work or related human service field. • Experience working with low-income families and/ or home-visiting
Contact Information:	Roxanne Wilson- Program Manager One Brookdale Plaza, Schachne LL-13 Brooklyn, NY 11212 Fax: (718) 240-8261 Email: rwilson@brookdale.edu CC: jguild@brookdale.edu
Deadline for Resumes:	ASAP