

Employment Opportunity

Location of Job:	184 Eldridge Street, New York, NY 10002
Employer:	University Settlement
Program Name:	University Settlement Healthy Families
Job Title:	Family Support Worker
Description of Duties:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through home visits, engage families and develop relationships based on strength-based model • Introduce and lead parent-child activities that support healthy attachment and foster optimal child development • Provide daily support and crisis management skills to families • Partnering with families, create a plan with attainable goals to enhance parent and child well-being • Co-facilitate community based parent-child groups • Maintain thorough written records of home visits, family goals, and all required documentation • Work collaboratively with community resources and advocate for families when necessary • Maintain a caseload consistent with program requirements and meet establish Healthy Families New York Performance targets • Participate in staff meetings, case conferences, training seminars and individual supervisory meetings; Some travel for training within New York State may be expected, and may require an overnight stay • Dependent on program need, serve as a back-up Family Assessment Worker during staff vacations or vacancies. • Other duties as assigned by program supervisor or program manager

Hours:	35 hrs per week, with possible evening hours, up to 7:00pm, required
Salary:	Low-mid $30K, with a generous benefit package
Minimum Requirements:	High school diploma/ GED with experience in early childhood or experience working with or assisting high/at-risk children and families in a community setting. Bilingual English/Mandarin REQUIRED
Preferred Requirements:	BA/BS Preferred
Contact Information:	Please send cover letter and resume to Marilus Castellanos, LCSW – Program Director via email at mcastellanos@universitysettlement.org
Deadline for Resumes:	Until position is filled