

Position Announcement: Training and Staff Development Specialist (Healthy Families New York)

Prevent Child Abuse New York is currently seeking a Training and Staff Development Specialist to join the statewide training team. This position provides training and quality assurance/technical assistance to Healthy Families New York (HFNY) home visiting programs throughout the state. Additional duties:

- Become certified and facilitate Healthy Families America core training and HFNY training to HFNY staff statewide
- Provide on-site quality assurance and site support
- Assist with curriculum development (including web-based design and development)
- Establish and maintain relationships with assigned HFNY sites and partners

Candidates will be required to show that they have experience with the Healthy Families America Home Visiting model, have a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood or Human Service related field, and supervisory experience. A successful candidate will demonstrate excellent leadership, communication, writing, relational, and training skill sets. Fluency in Spanish, and experience in perinatal health, child development, and infant mental health are preferred. The position is full time, exempt. Multi-day statewide travel required. With a large population of HFNY program staff being located in and around New York City, preference will be given to qualified candidates residing in the New York metropolitan area.

This position is open until filled. Interested individuals should provide a cover letter and resume to:
